FACULTY

Over 66% of staff hold advanced or double degrees. Many CIS faculty are IB trained. While CIS teachers may differ in nationality, background and age, they share a few common qualities. They are well educated, talented, and perhaps most importantly, they inspire their students, and their students inspire them.

SECONDARY SCHOOL OVERVIEW

Secondary school at CIS is an environment that combines consistently high expectations for academic success with relentless care and support, resulting in students who are confident, passionate and driven to succeed.

Our school has a breadth and depth of programmes, a culture of innovation, and a commitment to diversity and global engagement that is unique. We focus on developing the knowledge, skills and attitudes essential for success in the 21st century. We teach students to think critically, to see the connections between subject areas, to adapt skills for the situation at hand, and to adopt a range of different approaches when solving complex problems.

Our academically challenging programme is complemented by a broad range of languages, fine arts, athletics and service learning opportunities designed to develop balance, deepen connections and uncover true learning potential.
